RULES.

---

ARTICLE 1.

The librarian shall, under the direction of the board of trustees, have the charge and superintendence of the rooms of the Athenæum, and shall be responsible for the care and safety of all the books and other property contained in them, as well as the orderly deportment of readers.

ARTICLE 2.

The library will be open from 9 o'clock A. M. to 6 o'clock P. M. every day except Sundays, holidays and such other days as the board of trustees may designate. It will also be open on Tuesdays and Saturdays from 7 o'clock P. M. to 9 o'clock P. M.

ARTICLE 3.

The board of reference of the St. Johnsbury Athenæum shall consist of the following persons:

The trustees of the Athenæum.

The clergymen officiating in town.

The secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The town clerk.

The principals of the Academy and Union Schools.

The trustees of the Academy.

The town school directors.

ARTICLE 4.

The following persons shall be entitled to enjoy all the privileges of the Athenæum.

I. The members of the board of reference.

II. Any inhabitant of the town of St. Johnsbury over twenty-one years of age who presents a certificate signed by a member of the board of reference, stating him to be a proper person to enjoy the privileges of the library.

III. Any inhabitant of the town of St. Johnsbury under twenty-one years of age who is certified as above, and who also produces a certificate signed by his parents or guardian, or other responsible person, stating that the person so signing said certificate will be responsible for the observation of the regulations of the Athenæum by said minor, and for the loss or injury of books by said minor.

ARTICLE 5.

Any person temporarily residing in said town, in the discretion of the librarian may be allowed to take out books, subject to the regulations of the library, upon depositing with the librarian two dollars, or the full value of the book desired, as security for its safe return.

ARTICLE 6.

Any person, whether an inhabitant of the town or not, may, in the discretion of the librarian, be permitted to read books and periodicals at the library.

ARTICLE 7.

The librarian shall furnish to each person entitled to take out books a card on which the rules of drawing and returning such books shall be entered. The card must always be returned with each book.

ARTICLE 8.

Two books may be taken out on each card. Of these only one may be fiction.

ARTICLE 9.

Books may be kept out two weeks and at the end of that time may be renewed for another two weeks, with the exception of new books limited to one week, which must be returned at the end of that time and cannot be renewed. Books so limited will bear a label on the cover stating that they can be kept out only one week. Books cannot be exchanged the day they are taken out.

ARTICLE 10.

A fine of two cents a day, Sundays included, will be assessed on any book which is kept beyond the time specified in the preceding article.

ARTICLE 11.

Any book retained two weeks beyond the time specified by the regulations, shall be sent for by the librarian, and the expense incurred in obtaining such book shall be paid by the person retaining it; and any book not returned within one week after demand is made for it shall be regarded as lost, and the librarian shall proceed to collect the value of the same with accrued fines and other charges to date of payment. If the book be one of a set, the borrower shall pay the librarian the full value of said set, and may thereupon receive the remaining volumes as his property.

If any person defaces with marginal notes or otherwise injures a book, the person to whom it stands charged shall replace it by a new volume or set, if it belongs to a set, as above provided in case of a book being lost, or shall pay to the Athenæum a sum not exceeding the value of the book or set. If any person defaces a periodical he shall replace the same or pay the whole value to the Athenæum.

ARTICLE 12.

Books restricted from general circulation shall not be taken from the library except upon an order in writing signed by two trustees.

ARTICLE 13.

Periodicals may be taken out in the same manner as books after two months have elapsed from the time of their being received.

ARTICLE 14.

Conversation and conduct inconsistent with the quiet and orderly use of the library are strictly prohibited.

The use of tobacco will not be allowed in the building.

ARTICLE 15.

If any person violates the regulations of the Athenæum his right to the enjoyment of the privileges thereof may be temporarily suspended by the trustees.

NOTE.

---

Names of books added to the library since the Supplement was published in February, 1890, will be found on these pages, up to January 1, 1895.

The arrangement is simply alphabetical, by authors. Biographies will be found under both author and subject.

During the last five years the number of volumes has been raised from 12,210 to 13,708, which shows an increase of 1498. Of this number 162 volumes have been bought from the income of the Isabel Fairbanks Farwell Memorial Fund, given by Mrs. Horace Fairbanks in 1893, for the purchase of works of literature, art and children's books.
